BUILDING A BETTER, MORE EQUITABLE WORLD
PROSPECT SIERRA SCHOOL

PROSPECT SIERRA SCHOOL was founded on the result of a conversation between Bob and Eve Pritzker in 1985 and Betty Dyer and Peter Drucker in 1989. Prospect Sierra opened its doors in 1990 as a K-8 school. In 2001, we opened our middle school campus. In 2020, we opened our upper school campus, the first fully independent K-12 school in Northern California to offer an integrated academic program. Prospect Sierra is a diverse and inclusive school where students, faculty, and staff come together to support a culture of inclusion and belonging.
